

Give me your tired, your poor, Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me

On Tuesday, Feb. 23, the Colorado Springs City Council will consider ratification of an ordinance to prohibit camping on public land, in effect, criminalizing those without recourse.

Everyone would like to see the homeless brought out of the cold and restored to health and security, but not by means of prohibition. Help the indigent, do not make poverty illegal.

Whatsoever you do to the least of my people, that you do unto me.

Who but the landless disenfranchised have an inalienable claim to use the public land?
